Two part series: Humanae Vitae

Presented by Seminarian Emmett Hall

February 25 & March 4

7:00 - 9:00 pm

St. Patrick Catholic Church, Parish Center

9643 Ferndale Road, Dallas

Many suffer from the illusion that our activities away from the church belong to us. "This is my life, my body, my choice." However, church teaching provides us with the truth that allows us to enjoy real freedom. As faithful Catholics how can we reject such a gift? Come and join seminarian Emmett Hall in an exciting two-part exploration of the critical church teaching, Humanae Vitae, and the realities and beauty of the humanity that makes up our lives and activities.

Materials will be provided at each session. You can get a head start by visiting <http://www.papalencyclicals.net/Paul06/p6humana.htm> for the encyclical text.
